Tax Administration

500 North Main St. Suite 236
Monroe, NC 28112

Requests for hearing on real estate values, situs, or taxability, must be received prior to the office close of business at 5:00 pm on Wednesday, May 3, 2023, the advertised date for adjournment. In the event of earlier or later adjournment, notice to that effect will be published in this newspaper.

Owners of real property that receive an assessment notice after the adjournment of the Board of Equalization and Review may file a request for appeal within 15 days after the date of the notice.

Owners of individual or business personal property must appeal within 30 days after the initial notice of value or after receiving their tax bill, whichever occurs first. Any such appeals that may proceed to the Board of Equalization and Review will be heard at meetings scheduled on or after Monday, October 13, 2023.

The schedule for the hearing of appeals will be posted on the Union County website and in the Tax Administrator's office, serving as Clerk to the Board of Equalization and Review, and will also be provided to individuals and organizations that have requested notice pursuant to G.S. 143-318.12.

All requests for hearing must be made in writing to:
